

Road To Freedom

By: John Stewart

I'm gonna walk that road
that we walked long before, many years ago, and
we'll walk a hundred more.

And we're comin' one by one.
You didn't see us two by two.
Ev'ry time you turn around another's comin' through.
So we'll sing it long and proud
so ev'ryone will know
that the road to freedom is a long, long way to go.

Turn and look out over there,
just as far as you can see. There are many more
who have died for liberty.

And we're comin' one by one.
You didn't see us two by two.
Ev'ry time you turn around another's comin' through.
So we'll sing it long and proud
so ev'ryone will know
that the road to freedom is a long, long way to go.

I'm gonna walk that road
that we walked long before, many years ago, and
we'll walk a hundred more.

And we're comin' one by one.
You didn't see us two by two.
Ev'ry time you turn around another's comin' through.
So we'll sing it long and proud
so ev'ryone will know
that the road to freedom is a long, long way to go.
